NSDC partners with Axim collaborative to enhance open edX, boost skill development

Guwahati: The National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) has joined hands with Axim Collaborative, a non-profit organization, to enhance the Open edX open-source platform and drive digital innovation in the skill development ecosystem. The partnership aims to empower youth by expanding access to quality online education and vocational training.

ShriVed Mani Tiwari, CEO of NSDC and MD of NSDC International, and Ms. Stephanie Khurana, CEO of Axim Collaborative, signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on March 20, 2025. This collaboration will provide leadership and technical support to the Open edX Project, a global learning management system, while also fostering advancements in AI-driven teaching, credential recognition, mobile learning, and digital learning solutions. NSDC will also join the Open edX Technical Oversight Committee to further refine platform capabilities.

Commenting on the partnership, ShriVed Mani Tiwari stated, "We believe this collaboration will significantly enhance our efforts in vocational training and skill development. By contributing to the Open edX platform, we can provide better learning opportunities and prepare a future-ready workforce."

In Guwahati, this initiative is expected to benefit Assam's youth by offering digital learning tools tailored to the region's employment landscape. With a growing demand for skilled professionals in sectors like IT, healthcare, and manufacturing, enhanced digital learning resources will help bridge the skill gap and improve job readiness.
